Dedication

They have meant more to us, done more for us, and sacrificed more for us these past twelve years than anyone else possibly could.

To show them our gratitude, even in this small way, we dedicate this, the 1960 HOURGLASS to our parents.

Mr. N. E. Jones, Principal

Mr. N. E. Jones who has served as principal of the Erwin schools since 1956 is on leave of absence until September 1960. While Mr. Jones is away, Mr. J. L. Honeycutt is acting as principal.

Class History

Historian,
Sondra House

Early one September morning in 1956, a group of confused and energetic Freshmen entered Erwin High School. Being anxious to take our place, we elected the following class officers: Bob Bost, President; Barbara McCaskill, Vice-President; Janette Adcox, Secretary; and Wayne Avery, Treasurer. Three of our girls, Margaret Bradley, Elizabeth Moore, and Barbara Williams became Library Assistants. Many members of the class joined various clubs, and the following were elected as officers of the FHA: Barbara McCaskill, Treasurer; Pat Turlington, Vice-President; Linda Autry, Historian; and Janet Hollingsworth, Song Leader. Larry Barbour was chosen as Secretary-Treasurer of the Industrial Arts Club. We were honored to have Gordon Ennis, Bob Bost, Earl Moore, Glenn Johnson, Hardie Horne, Tommy Barefoot, Bruce Ryals, Ronnie House, and Dale Butler on the football team. We had two girls, Mickie Crawford and Barbara McCaskill, to make the girls' basketball team, and Hardie Horne, Ronnie House, Bob Bost, and Earl Moore made the boys' team. Pat Turlington represented the Freshman Class as a cheerleader. Representatives on the Student Council were Wayne Avery, Bob Bost and Janette Adcox. At Commencement, Linda Autry and Sondra House won the music awards, and Sondra also won the band award. Janette Adcox was also chosen as Miss Erwin High.

The next year as Sophomores we were eager to begin a successful year. Therefore, we elected the following officers: Billy Moore, President; Ronnie House, Vice-President; Connie Stewart, Secretary; and La Verne Johnson, Treasurer. We were happy to have Rosemary Adair, Bob Bost, Mickie Crawford, Sondra House, La Verne Johnson, Earl Moore, Connie Stewart, and Pat Turlington tapped into the Beta Club. Again this year, several members of our class served as officers on various clubs. Ronnie House, Earl Moore, Bob Bost, Hardie Horne, Paul McClanahan, Charlie Lee, Bill Hudson, John Baker, and Allman Hudson represented the Sophomore Class on the football team. Gordon Ennis served as their manager. Betty Dowd, Margaret Bradley, Mickie Crawford, Connie Stewart, and Barbara McCaskill were on the girls' basketball team while Earl Moore, Bob Bost, Ronnie House, and Hardie Horne made the boys' team. Six of our boys, Buddy Weaver, Hardie Horne, Earl Moore, Charlie Lee, Larry Barbour, and John Baker were on the basketball team. La Verne Johnson and Rosemary Adair were chosen as two of the new cheerleaders. Penny Johnson was chosen as the Varsity Sweetheart at the homecoming Football game, and Pat Turlington won the FHA Award at the close of the year.

In September of 1958, we began our Junior year. Eager to make this a successful year, we elected as our officers the following: Billy Moore, President; Earl Moore, Vice-President; Connie Stewart, Secretary; and La Verne Johnson, Treasurer. Billy Moore was elected Vice-President of the Student Council while Pat Turlington served as Treasurer. Once again several members of the class held various positions in the different clubs. Rosemary Adair and Bill Hudson were chosen as Co-editors of the school paper, the Erwin Hi-Lite, and Mickie Crawford served as Business Manager. We were happy to have Betty Dowd and Gordon Ennis tapped into the Beta Club our Junior year. Several girls of the class worked as Library Assistants. We represented "Brother Goose" as our Junior Play that year, and it was enjoyed by all in attendance. Mickie Crawford, Janette Adcox, and Annette Adcox were chosen as cheerleaders, and as usual we were well represented on the football, basketball, and baseball teams our Junior year. We were honored to have Judith Stephens to represent Erwin in the annual Christmas Parade as Miss Merry Christmas. At the close of the year, after a year of hard work raising money, we gave the Seniors a Junior and Senior Prom with Mardi Gras as the theme. At the end of the year, Connie Stewart won the United States History Award, and Sondra House and Linda Autry won the Music Awards.

We entered our Senior year with high spirits, eager for a most successful year. Mr. John Honeycutt served as our Senior sponsor. Ready for a good year, the class elected Bob Bost, President; John Baker, Vice-President; La Verne Johnson, Secretary; and Sondra House, Treasurer. We chose white and red as the class colors and the red and white carnation as our flower. For our motto we chose "It matters not what you are thought to be, but what you are." Pat Turlington was elected as Editor-in-Chief of the annual, THE HOURGLASS, with Rosemary Adair as assistant editor. Connie Stewart was elected to serve as Business Manager. Pat Turlington became chief cheerleader with the following girls from the Senior Class helping her: La Verne Johnson, Rosemary Adair, Janette Adcox, Annette Adcox, Mickie Crawford, Judith Stephens, and Rebecca Fowler. We were well represented on the football team with the following Senior boys participating in that sport: Ronnie House, Billy Moore, Bob Bost, Bill Hudson, Earl Moore, Kenneth Strickland, Allman Hudson, Hardie Horne, and Paul McClanahan. We were also represented on the basketball and baseball teams. Again, we had several members of the class serving as officers of the various clubs and organizations. Then one morning we were notified that our class rings had arrived. The next morning we had in our possessions a prize gift we had long awaited for. Janette Adcox was chosen as Varsity Sweetheart and was crowned by the preceding year's sweetheart. The Washington trip and the annual Junior and Senior Banquet and Prom climaxed a most successful year.

Now a long awaited moment has arrived, our graduation. We are proud to be graduates of the 1960 class but sad to leave so many friends and teachers behind. We hope we have left a part of us behind that will remind all those whom we are leaving of the Senior Class of '60.

Gang way, folks! Now don't get excited; it isn't an earthquake or a forest fire! It's just the postman staggering under a load of letters, magazines, and newspapers, all from my classmates of '60. Shall we open them to see what all our old pals are doing?

What an unusual postmark! Why, it's from China! It seems that Connie Stewart has become another "Florence Nightingale." She is doing her best to relieve suffering in foreign countries.

Now, I see in this newspaper that Dr. Gordon Ennis, Jr. has been named the head of the Psychology Department at Johns Hopkins Hospital. He has really hit the top.

Look at this article: "Sondra House is the Director of Nurses at Duke Hospital." I'll bet Sondra is still saying:

"Cute little face,
Cute little figure;
'Stay away, boys,
'Til I get a little bigger. '"

This letter is from Rosemary Adair, an English Major, who is now an instructor at the University of the South. She was always quite interested in that field.

The return address on this letter reads, "THE NEW YORK TIMES, office of the Editor-in-Chief." Well, what do you know? It's from Pat Turlington, our own HOURGLASS Editor. I understand that Pat is doing a wonderful job in New York, just as she did here at E.H.S.

Oh, here's a note from my friend, Penny Johnson. She is now owner of the Hollywood Beauty Shoppe, and what's more, Rebecca Fowler and Janette Adcox, two well-known academy award winners, are her best customers.

Here's a newspaper clipping. The headline states: "W. E. Manning, Winner of the Indianapolis 500." That makes five straight wins for W. E.

What a beautiful painting on the cover of this magazine! Look, it was painted by Linda Autry. This article states that Linda has been presented an award for the most outstanding artist of the year.

Guess who has been given a silver loving cup for being the National Champion Hunter of the year? James Wicker, of course. This copy of WILDLIFE MAGAZINE has an article about him.

Now, here is really something! Imagine Annette Adcox starring in a movie! This advertisement says that she is a great comedienne, who has a 20-year contract with 20th Century Fox, now owned by Larry Barbour, the great producer. Margaret Lucas is her understudy.

This letter bears a postmark from England. Well, what do you know? Betty Lucas, the wife of a very wealthy banker, is touring Europe and Asia with her husband. What a life!

Who can be sending us a letter from General Motors? It's from Willie Hartley, president of General Motors; incidentally, I hear that Willie collects hot rods as a hobby. Same old Willie!

Here's something a little different - it's a Greyhound Bus advertisement. Just look! Jimmy Parker is owner of this great bus line. Jimmy's assistant is Larry Morgan. They are still in the bus business, just like their high school days.

Oh! Here's a letter from La Verne Johnson. She is secretary and wife to the Governor of New York, Billy Moore.

Here's the new HIT PARADE MAGAZINE. I see a picture of Margaret Bradley, a great soprano for the Metropolitan Opera Company. Just look at this picture of Judy Allen, Brenda Johnston, and Julia Beasley. They are known throughout the world as the "Three Notes." Gee! These girls have really hit stardom.

What an impressive-looking letter! Just imagine! It's from Bob Bost, the President of the United States. I understand that he has a very efficient secretary, Betty Dowd, who is the fastest typist in the U.S.

Prophecy

Letters, letters, and still more letters - this one comes from Paul McClanahan. Paul, an instructor in the field of architecture, has just designed the new Capitol Building. What a job that was!

Wow! The class of '60 is represented in SPORTS ILLUSTRATED. Ronnie House, star quarterback of the Baltimore Colts, has been chosen as the most outstanding quarterback in pro-football. He is really a great passer, and I understand that Earl Moore, his teammate, makes a great receiver.

Now this is really unbelievable. Dr. Bill Hudson, a very capable surgeon, has been presented a medal for the best surgeon of the year. Bill specializes in heart operations, and I've heard that Barbara McCaskill, who is now a surgical nurse, is always ready to help him.

This letter is from Jerry Manning, coach of the No. 1 basketball team in the nation, the UNC Tarheels. I always knew he enjoyed basketball, and now he has his own team.

This note comes from Dorothea Wilson and Judy Oldham. They are now secretaries for the President of Weaver's Department Store, owned by Buddy Weaver. They also are chairmen of the annual Weaver's Christmas Parade.

Even Texas is represented by the Class of '60. J. W. Warren and Charles Dorman, new owners of a large oil plant, have reached the $100,000,000 mark in sales. Now they have really struck it rich, and I've read that Hardie Horne, owner of a well-known chain of gas stations, is their largest buyer.

Here's a photograph of Larry Herring's Orchestra! He is the new director of the famous Glenn Miller Band. Larry really likes music. In fact, he's the composer of the new "Down the Hall Choo Choo."

You remember Helen Dennis? Her letter states that she is very much interested in civic affairs. By the way, Helen's husband, Allman Hudson, is now a senator from California.

What a beautiful car in this magazine! Let's see . . . It's an advertisement. Tommy Barefoot and Leslie Clark are the owners of Barefoot-Clark Cars, Inc. They really must have a successful business to advertise in the POST.

See this photograph? It's Charlie Lee. He's been chosen to serve as ambassador to India. He is really making a very successful career in the diplomatic service.

You haven't forgotten Jesse Godwin, have you? He is the president of the Yellow Cab Company. I've heard that he has as his secretaries, Barbara Williams and Elizabeth Moore, two of the very best students Mrs. Martox had in her business education classes.

Here's the local newspaper. Glenn Johnson is the owner of a very well-known auto repair shop. I have heard that Larry Parker, editor-in-chief of the DUNN DISPATCH, and that Rudolph Reeves, a lawyer, visits him frequently.

No class would be complete without a minister. This note is from the Rev. Kenneth Byrd, who is doing much for the betterment of the world. Kenneth Byrd writes that Glenda Haire is soloist in his church. I know you remember her beautiful voice.

Oh! Another letter. This one is from John Baker, the operator of the chain of food stores known as the A & P. His excellent secretary is Judy Stephens. By the way, Judy also models in her spare time.

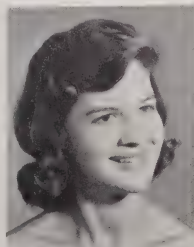

Here's a news item of interest. Ray Thomas is the new announcer of WTV D's presentation of an upcoming Hillbilly Show starring Larry Bradshaw and his Mountain Dew Boys. This should really make a big hit.

Oh, boy! Another letter. This one comes from Frankie Smith. He has just been elected President of Duke University. I suppose you know that Janet Hollingsworth is Dean of Women there.

Last, but not least, is this letter from Kenneth Strickland, a great rock-n-roll singer. Why, he's even more popular than Ricky Nelson.

Well, that includes every member of the Class of '60 except me, and I must get back to the hospital and to my patients.

Erwin High School
May 30, 1960

State of North Carolina
County of Harnett
City of Erwin

We, the graduating Class of 1960, being of sound minds and judgment, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To Our Parents: We leave our deepest gratitude for making our school years possible.

ARTICLE II

To the Faculty: We leave our appreciation for the effort they have put forth to give us wisdom.

ARTICLE III

To Mr. Honeycutt and Miss McClure, Our Sponsors: We leave our love and appreciation for the patience and interest given to us throughout the years.

ARTICLE IV

To Mr. Jones: We leave our eternal gratitude for his untiring efforts to make our lives more prosperous.

To the Juniors: We leave our Senior privileges, such as walking into chapel last and the press room.

ARTICLE V

During our years of school we have acquired special abilities which we would like to bestow upon the members of the Junior Class.

Bob Bost leaves his leadership ability to Woody Woodall and John Dowd. "Sharp's the word for them."

Penny Johnson and Janet Hollingsworth will their ability to write letters to Margaret Deck. "When he's out of sight, he is not always out of mind."

Mickie Crawford and Margaret Bradley will their dependability and vigor to Carolyn Whittington. "So much one man can do, that does both act and know."

Rosemary Adair leaves her scholastic grades to Judy Strickland. "The sky's the limit."

Linda Autry and Paul McClanahan will their artistic talent to Peggy Hester. "Art is nature, made by men."

Betty Lucas leaves her politeness to Mary Alice Davis and Bobbie Jewel Faircloth. "I'm the peak of courtesy."

Larry Parker wills his uncanny ways to Edward Ivey and Dale Butler. "He is as crazy as a March Hare."

Julia Beasley and Brenda Johnston leave their inseparable ways to Sheila Thornton and Sue Reardon. "A friend in need is a friend indeed."

Larry Bradshaw wills his ability to get everything confused to Wayne Vann and Daniel Williams. "Nothing ventured, nothing gained."

Kenneth Byrd leaves his gentlemanly manners to Norman Avery and Edwin Stone. "Ladies love gentlemen."

Leslie Clark wills his carefree ways to Walter Tripp and Steve McLeod. "The only way to get rid of temptation is to yield to it."

Charles Dorman leaves his driving ability to Shelton Price and Edward Pope. "Man can die, but only once."

Larry Morgan wills his ability to tell jokes to Kenneth Howell and J. C. Melvin. "He who lives without folly is unwise."

Bill Hudson leaves his witty remarks to Bobby Trozden and Tommy Smith. "Life to me is just a comedy."

Kenneth Strickland leaves his ability to make strange noises to Larry Herring and Jerry Hudson. "The wild are not all in the Jungle."

Buddy Weaver wills his reserved ways to Willard Barbour and Kenneth Byrd. "For he was just the quiet kind whose nature never varied."

Billy Moore wills his ability to get a steady girlfriend (and keep her) to Lloyd Maynard. "Till death do us part."

Judy Oldham and Glenda Haire leave their quietness to Virginia West and Dianne West. "It is better to be seen, and not heard."

Gordon Ennis and Larry Barbour will their ability to avoid any one girl to Jerry McCaskill and Wilbert Strickland. "Give me a hundred beautiful girls, but give me one at a time."

John Baker leaves his position as a grocery boy to Larry Colville. "The world knows nothing of its greatest men."

Barbara McCaskill and Judy Allen will their friendly ways to Gayle Ennis and Brenda McDonald. "The one way to have a friend is to be one."

Willie Hartley and Jesse Godwin leave their quiet manners to Earl Core and Douglas Cameron. "The truly civilized ones have no enemies."

Ronnie House and Allman Hudson leave their athletic ability to Mike Stephens and Clayton Williams. "If you see me coming, better step aside."

Glenn Johnson and W. E. Manning leave their valuable line of cars to Wyman Autry. "Men are often capable of greater things than they perform."

Tommy Barefoot leaves his ability to "go steady" to Bobby Brown and Louis Joseph. "Girls are a man's best friend."

Margaret Lucas wills her many uncanny habits to Martha Raynor and Betty Jo Dorman. "She is as crazy as a March Hare."

Elizabeth Moore leaves her ability to succeed in business to Sondra Ralph and Drucilla Griffin. "Grace is given of God, but Knowledge is bought in the market."

Judith Stephens wills her pleasant disposition to Carol Toth. "Beauty draws more than the beast."

Connie Stewart leaves her many various ways to Elaine Manning and Violet Hamilton. "Variety is the spice of life."

Barbara Williams wills her easy going ways to Jane Eanes and Betty Melvin. "Whatever she attempted, she performed."

Dorothea Wilson leaves her lovable personality to Sue Warren and Linda Norris. "The best is yet to come."

Annette Adcox leaves her ability to make others laugh to Alice McLean. "Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Sondra House leaves her height to Martha Watkins. "Dynamite comes in small packages."

Pat Turlington leaves her position as chief cheerleader to Ann Neidzwick. "The sweetest noise on earth, a woman's tongue."

Jerry Manning leaves his height to Larry Godwin. "Not to the top but climbing."

Earl Moore leaves his ability to eat to Ed Caldwell. "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach."

Hardie Horne leaves his ability to catch up on his sleep to Larry Olom. "Blessings on him who first invented sleep."

Janette Adcox leaves her winning smile to Caron Ann Bethune and Winifred Turner. "Her very frowns are fairer far than the smiles of other maidens."

Helen Dennis wills her basketball ability to Wanda Lee and Frankie Messer. "Eat those wheaties, girls!"

Betty Dowd and Bebecca Fowler leave their ability to obtain a diamond to Linda Johnson. "A diamond is a girl's best friend."

J. W. Warren leaves his ability to pump gas to Larry Crane and Paul Dawkins. "Men are often capable of greater things than they perform."

Ray Thomas leaves his ability to always have an excuse to Corbett Hall and Thomas Howard. "Well - I was just standing there . . ."

James Wicker wills his money-making ability to Everette Thomas. "A penny saved is a penny earned."

Frankie Smith leaves his ability to always keep laughing to Ronald Stewart and Thurman Wilbourn. "He was born with a gift of laughter."

Rudolph Reeves leaves his ability to get along in the world to Raymond Moore and Edward Norris. "As though the world and he were Hand and glove."

Charlie Lee wills his ability to get along with his teachers to Donald Byrd. "He knew on which side his bread is buttered."

As for me, I leave my memories of EHS and hope that you have as many wonderful ones as I have had.

In witness thereof, we the class of 1960 have set our seal on this the 30th day of May.

Coach of the Year
JOHN L. PECORA

The Erwin football team, under the direction of their competent coach, John Pecora, experienced the only perfect regular season in the history of Erwin High School this past year. The great success of the team was accredited to the ever-present hustle, enthusiasm, and splendid sportsmanship exhibited by the team at all times. Winners of the Mid-Central Conference for the third straight year, the fighting "Redskins" only met defeat at the hands of the Beaufort "Seadogs," who went on to win the State Class "A" Championship.

The Erwin Junior Varsity, only organized this year under the coaching of Graham Stewart and William Corbett, also had an undefeated season.
